Capital District Community Gardens Receives $24,550 in Corporate Donations

Local Businesses Support CDCG's Efforts to Improve Public Health and to Beautify Neighborhoods in Four Counties

Capital District Community Gardens, the 36-year-old non-profit that nourishes healthy communities throughout Albany, Rensselaer, Schenectady and southern Saratoga counties with 48 community gardens and 8 other programs designed to improve public health, will use $24,550 in recent corporate donations to support existing programs and to continue the organization's growth.

- Saratoga Casino and Raceway – donated $5,000
- SEFCU - donated $7,000
- Key Bank - donated $5,050
- Cargill - donated $2,000
- Walmart – donated $4,500
- Sam's Club – donated $1,000

"We are so grateful to these businesses that choose to support our mission to nourish healthy communities throughout our region," says Capital District Community Gardens' Executive Director Amy Klein. "It is with great appreciation for their generosity that we look forward to another year of improving the health of our neighbors."
