

Produce Project Coordinator

This direct service position collaborates with another Coordinator to use the gardens, kitchen and market of Capital Roots as the basis of the Produce Project's experiential learning program, which teaches critical job and life skills to youth from Troy High. Operating afterschool and during the summer, this year-round position mixes office and physical outdoor work differently across the seasons, mostly outdoor April- Oct., mostly indoor Nov. - March; a successful Coordinator will enjoy applying both their physical and mental powers to youth development and community service.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree and at least two years of professional work experience (preferably experiential, outdoor and/or classroom teaching/mentoring).
- Ability to mentor a racially and socioeconomically diverse population of youth.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills. Demonstrated computer proficiency, particularly Excel.
- Exercise ethical, independent judgment and discretion; handle personal data with strict confidentiality.
- Must bring enthusiasm, a desire to learn, and a genuine interest in Capital Roots' mission to the position.
- Must have a valid driver's license, and a driving record acceptable for insurance coverage.
- Candidates must enjoy outdoor work in all seasons, be able bend and crouch, and to lift 50 pounds. Farming and/or outdoors experience is helpful.
- Candidates must be able to accommodate evening and occasional weekend hours.
- To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES:

- Collaborating with another Coordinator, Program Manager and partnering programs, deliver a well-structured curriculum for up to 25 youth that integrates with, and complements the horticultural and school years.
- Recruit, onboard, and assess all youth participants and interns.
- Plan and schedule field trips, guest educators, and community events.
- Maintain youth and intern records for grants, scheduling and stipend disbursement.
- Supervise interns, youth leaders, and youth to optimize growing and learning outcomes.
- Manage the garden and engage youth in the growing and harvesting of vegetables to support their weekly food shares. Use food shares to build familiarity and enjoyment of cooking and healthy eating among youth.
- Set and uphold the program culture - maintaining a positive and learning-oriented environment, fostering self-reflection and assessment, encouraging teamwork, and promoting positive and effective communication.
- Partner with other Capital Roots programs to involve you in advancing environmental awareness and urban greening in the region through tree plantings, rain and community gardens, etc.
- Work with Capital Roots' Youth Training Manager and Chief Program Officer of Cultivation to help achieve the organization's mission and strengthen programming.
- Fulfill other duties as assigned by Manager and Chief Program Officer.
- Participate in Capital Roots' events, staff meetings, and all other duties as needed.
- This is not a remote work position, the position requires the candidate to be on-site at Capital Roots.

USEFUL KNOWLEDGE, EXPERIENCE, SKILLS:

- Positive Youth Development, conflict resolution and community organizing
- Environmental education, train the trainer
- Horticulture, garden tool, and outdoor equipment knowledge.
- Cooking or food service experience
- "Handiness." Practical problem solving.
